PLAN BANQUET FOR SOLDIERS

CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO ENLIST YOUNG MEN IN SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

A "SERVICE MAN" CLASS

To Be an Active Organization—Plan to Secure an Up-town Room for Meeting Place.

The Bible school of the First Christian church here under the direction of Rev. R. E. Snodgrass, pastor, and G. B. Roseberry, superintendent, is planning one of the biggest campaigns to enlist young men in Sunday school, that has ever been lanched in this section of the country.

The time set for the Drive is June 17 to 22. The committees will be busy every day from now on planning the campaign and getting every thing in shape for the big days of the drive.

On the evening of the 17th the campaign will open with a banquet with all returned soldier boys of Maryville and vicinity as honor guests and to which all young men not now attending Bible school and who will be prospects for the new class, will be invited. The people here have felt for some time that there should be some public function in recognition of the services of the soldiers and the committee is planning this banquet in their honor to supply this long felt need. They will welcome the assistance of all interested, in the securing of the names of all returned soldiers.

The committee has in hand now a prospective list of more than one hundred and this list will grow every day as new names are handed in. These young men will be organized into a huge Sunday school class the inauguration of which will close the campaign on the morning of the 22d.

The class will meet every Sunday morning at 9:30 and will be a part of the large school of the First Christian church and supported by it. The class will be under the instruction of the pastor Rev. R. E. Snodgrass who, being a young man, will enter heartily into all the activities of the class. It is intended that the social features of the organization will be well taken care of and these will be developed after the organization has been perfected. Rev. Snodgrass has had much experience in men's classes and this will no doubt insure the success of the undertaking.

Inasmuch as all of the rooms in the church building are already running over with the other departments of the school it will be necessary to secure an up town room near the church as the meeting place for this class. As this organization is to especially welcome all returned soldier boys and will honor them in every possible way it seems fitting and proper that this class should be organized as a living memorial to those who have given their lives in behalf of humanity with the hope that it will perpetuate thru its existence the principles for which they bled and died.

A 13-INNING GAME AT B. J.

Boosters Lose Tight Contest to Maitland Through Fluke—High Brand of Baseball.

The Maitland base ball team defeated the Burlington Junction Boosters yesterday afternoon on the latter's diamond by a score of 5 to 4 in a thrilling thirteen inning game.

The game was close throughout and both teams played air tight ball during the latter innings of the contest. In the first half of the thirteenth, a Maitland batter hit a short fly over second and the ball was lost in the grass behind the bag. He scored on the fluke and won the game.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR AG. WORK

G. B. HOLMES, FRED WOLFERS AND BERT COOPER TO SOLICIT FUNDS

BACKED BY COM'L CLUB

Subscription to Take the Place of Funds Raised for Annual Nodaway County Agricultural and Domestic Science Show.

In order to extend the work of Vitalized Agriculture and Rural Life work through the schools of Nodaway county and keep this county in the lead and the example of other states that have adopted the Nodaway County plan, the Commercial Club voted last Monday night to get back of the movement financially and appointed a committee to raise the funds. Between four and five hundred dollars are needed. This subscription will be taken this year instead of the subscription here-to-fore taken for the Nodaway County Agricultural and Domestic Science Association as sufficient funds for that contest are now already on hand. The Vitalized Agriculture will play an important part in the show and contest this fall.

President Geo. L. Wilfley of the Commercial Club appointed G. B. Holmes, Fred Wolfers and Bert Cooper as a committee to take the subscription for this work and they will call upon Maryville progressives Tuesday or Wednesday for their contribution to this very important Agriculture movement. Nodaway County was recently visited by Senor Max Salus, representative from Chilean government of South America to Study the Vitalized Agriculture in the rural schools of Nodaway County as models to shape their school after and went away with glowing reports of finding just the work he wanted to see. Dr. H. J. Waters, formerly dean of the Missouri State College of Agriculture and afterwards president of the State College of Agriculture of Kansas recently made a trip to Nodaway county to study the system as used in the schools here and says "If the best young men are to be kept on the farm the best of the young women must be taught to love the farm and that is the attitude that Vitalized Agriculture is giving the boys and girls in this county." Dr. Winship of Boston manifests practically the same interest and likewise others who have studied the work. This is an Agricultural county, second to none in the country and the commercial club feels that we cannot afford to lose a single opportunity to push this splendid Agricultural and educational enterprise that is capturing commendation of the foremost educators of the whole country. You will greatly assist the committee if you will give your subscription readily when these busy men call upon you.

FEDERALS TAKE STANBERRY RED SOX TO 18-8 CLEANING

Erratic Game Staged on Fair Grounds Diamond—Visitors "Blow Up" in First Three Innings.

The Maryville Federals walked away from the Stanberry Red Sox by an 18 to 8 score yesterday afternoon at the Fair Grounds diamond in an erratic exhibition of the national pastime.

The game was scheduled to begin at 3:30 but owing to the lateness of the visitors in arriving, the contest did not begin until nearly five.

The first three innings was a comedy of errors with Stanberry nine playing the part of the "goat" and Maryville garnering 12 runs out of the fray. The Feds took advantage of the confusion of their guests, and time after time the "hit and run" was staged with the bewildered Sox holding the sack.

After the opening smoke had cleared, both teams settled down, and played fairly tight ball for the remainder of the show.

Bluell did the hurling for the Federals with Manager Black on the receiving end.

J. E. Middleton of Kansas City, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Middleton since Friday, left this morning for his home. J. E. Holaday of Barnard, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Middleton.

BISHOP WARNE IN E. L. ADDRESS

MISSIONARY WHO HAS SPENT 31 YEARS IN INDIA TELLS EXPERIENCES.

TALK BY REV. HARKNESS

Kansas City Minister Tells of Red Problem in the U. S.—Close of Annual Convention.

Bishop F. W. Warne, a missionary who has spent thirty-one years in India, delivered the sermon yesterday morning at the First M. E. Church in connection with the annual District Convention of the Epworth League, which closed there last night with an address by Rev. S. D. Harkness of Kansas City.

The Bishop told the young people of the convention, and many others who had congregated at the church to hear him talk, of the experiences which he has had during his long years in the Far East. He told a complete story of the work which is being accomplished among the heathen of that country and the manner in which the people are waking up to the Christian religion and dropping the old time ceremonies and form of the Mohammedan faith.

"Accordingto the customs of India," said the speaker, "a woman is practically a slave from the time of her birth. Girls are married when they are eighteen years old, and are never allowed to remarry. The man chooses his bride and she is forced to live with him. If he dies she becomes a slave of his relatives."

The Bishop then told of the enlightenment which is being brought to these people by the American missionaries and the eagerness with which the natives listen to the words of the foreign speakers.

Bishop Warne spoke of the method which is used in first speaking to a group of natives. "The older methods were to engage in debates with the native priests in regard to their religious views, but that has changed and the newer method is to appeal more to the intellect of the people themselves." He then illustrated with an umbrella and two handkerchiefs the manner in which the idea of Christianity is brought before the minds of the people. The handkerchiefs were tied on the umbrella in a manner to divide it up into three divisions, each of which reprtsented a phase of the Christian religion "The first space illustrates the Divine Father," said Bishop Warne, "the second, His appearance on earth among men, and the third, His ascention into Heaven."

The Bishop stated that the idea is brought before the minds of the natives in a manner which makes them remember. One of the points which the speaker brought out was that the people of India are open to a religion which will take the place of the ancient heathen worship which they now have, and that the people seem to be grasping for knowledge and enlightenment.

Bishop Warne told of the pleasures which he has had in India in connection with the work which he has accomplished there and urged upon every young person who felt the call to become a Missionary to answer it and engage in the work.

Rev. Samuel D. Harkness, of the Emanuel Presbyterian church of Kansas City, and a former minister in Maryville, spoke on "The Church in the New Era."

Rev. Harkness told of the great post war problems which are now coming up throughout the world, and the manner in which they must be met. "Bolshevism is one of the biggest problems which the world has to face at this time," he said, "and there is just as much of a menace of the Reds here in this country as there is in Russia. New York," he said, "is the great center of the Bolsheviks here in the United States, and they are attempting to create havoc here as they have been doing in Russia and Siberia."

Rev. Harkness brought out that the church was one of the greatest enemies of the Bolsheviks and that organized religious activity was one of the most forceful ways of combating the great evil.

At the afternoon session of the Convention yesterday, Miss Ruby Irwin, of this city, spoke on the "Institute

Her brother, Benjamin Faubian, arrived there Friday. Funeral arrangements have not been completed at this time.

PEACE TERMS TO AUSTRIANS

FORMAL PRESENTATION MADE SHORTLY BEFORE NOON BY CLEMENCEAU

A TRAGIC SPECTACLE

Proceeding Held in Ancient Castle at St. Germain—Allies Expect Reply Within Week.

Features of Treaty.

Former Austro-Hungarian government ceases to exist, replaced in Austria by Republican government.

All Austrian naval and air forces must be demobilized.

Republic must recognize right of the Allies to bring war offenders to trial.

Republic must recognize the complete independence of Hungary, Czecho Slovakia, Jugo-Slavia.

Republic must agree to accept the League of Nations and the peace conference charter.

Paris, June 2.—The second act in the world's peace drama was staged shortly after noon today when peace terms of the Allied and Associated powers were presented to the Austrian delegates at St. Germain. In a formal address just before the treaty was handed to the Austrian envoys, Premier Clemenceau said that the Allies expected a reply within a week. The spectacle was a most tragic one, with the most virile nations in the world today reciting the terms to representatives of the skeleton of what was once the powerful Austrian empire, and which they must accept if they expect their country to live. The proceedings which will make the Hapsburg rule in southern Europe hereafter, simply a matter of history forever, were held in the ancient castle of St. Germain, where the royal exiles, during the days of the empire mourned the loss of their throne. The curse called down upon the head of Emperor Joseph had reached its climax. Only a portion of the former dual empire was represented as the entente will not treat with the Hungarians until the Soviet government at Budapest is stamped out. In remitting proofs of the draft of the treaty to the Austrians, Clemenceau warned the enemy delegates that no oral discussions would be permitted and that all protests must be handed in writing within a fort night.

London, June 2.—A trial of all the Austrian war criminals before an inter Allied tribunal is one of the main terms of the treaty with Austria according to the Daily Mail. The other two are the surrender by Austria of all her merchant fleet and the demobilization of her army and navy and air forces.

ALLIES DEMAND SIGNATURE.

Paris, June 2.—An ultimatum demanding that the treaty be signed before June 15 will accompany the Allies rejection of the German counter peace proposals, it was learned today.

Mrs. Jessie F. Colden and her sister, Mrs. Mark Heflin of Wilcox, left last night for Denver, Colo., to spend a few weeks.

MEMBER MISSOURI PRESS ASSOCIATION

MISSOURI STATE LETTER.

Jefferson City, June 2.—Governor Gardner has approved seventy-five more bills passed by the legislature. Nearly all of the children's code bills were among those approved.

These include three prohibiting children from being employed in factories; limiting hours of employment of children to forty-eight a week; prohibiting employment of girls under 18 in the messenger service of telegraph companies; making child abandonment a felony; requiring segregation of epileptics in a colony for the feeble-minded; fixing the legal age for marriage at 15 years; prohibiting employment of women three weeks before or three weeks after child-birth; prohibiting recorder from issuing a marriage license to persons under 15 years of age, except upon order of the judges of the circuit and probate courts; requiring all girls under 18 and men under 21 to have the consent of father, mother or guardian before a license to marry can be issued, and making appointment of a county supervisor of public welfare optional with the county court.

The governor has signed the disbarment act drawn by the State Bar Association. Under the old law conviction of an offense was a necessary prelude to disbarment. Under the bill just approved disbarment may be had on testimony that would convict.

Other bills approved were several insurance measures sponsored by Davidson of St. Louis, one providing for incorporation of life insurance companies under the laws of Missouri, whose capital stock has been impaired to the extent of 50 per cent; erecting a state bureau of markets; appropriating $100,000 for interior decorations of the new state house; appropriating $2,000 to the widow of Captain Eli Jenkins, a prison officer, murdered while on duty by convicts in the penitentiary February 21, 1918; increasing fees of assessors and salaries of circuit clerks.

None of the big appropriation bills have been signed, and a number of general bills are still on the governor's desk.

St. Louis, June 2.—"No American realizes how dear the League of Nations is to President Wilson's heart," declared Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the president in an address at a Democratic State Committee mass meeting here. "No man and no party that places obstacles in the way of the League of Nations will survive long enough to outlive the memory of such an offense against humanity and civilization," Tumulty continued.

Touching on the conduct of the war, Tumulty said:

"Do you realize that if all the money appropriated by congress to run the United States Government from the time of George Washington down to the present time were totaled, it would not reach the sum appropriated by congress for America's share in the European war? And yet there has not been one charge of a dollar spent dishonestly.

"Every thought of the government in conducting this war has been directed toward making it as humane as possible. The first thought has been for the soldiers and their comfort. There never before has been so much attention paid to the welfare of the soldiers. The Democratic party has done everything it could to make that awful thing called war as humane as possible.

"We Democrats are not afraid to put our case in the hands of President Wilson."

St. Louis, June 2.—The story of the rescue of the now famous "Lost Battalion" whose commander, Lieut Col. Whittlesey, told the Huns to "Go to Hell" when they demanded its surrender was told first hand by a member of the 50th Aero squadron, which unit has reached Scott Field, Bellville, where it will be stationed permanently.

It was the 50th Aero squadron which discovered the predicament of the battalion surrounded by the enemy.

Lieut. Robert M. Andrews, one of the pilots of the squadron and Lieut. Rodgers, an observer located the battalion.

Troop Train Here Sunday.

A troop train carrying the 20th Engineers to California passed through Maryville Sunday morning about 9 o'clock. They were going via Omaha. There were seventeen coaches in the train.

MRS. MAY COULD NOT WORK

Made Well and Strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbia, Pa.—"I was very weak and run down and had dragging-down pains and pains in my back. I could not get around to do my work and had to sit down and rest often during the day. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the papers and read the testimonials, so I thought I would try it. Now I am healthier than I ever was in my life, and can recommend it to any woman who suffers as I did." —Mrs. ELIZABETH MAY, R.F.D. No. 1, Columbia, Pa.

The reason Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence, and the letters which we are constantly publishing from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of this famous root and herb medicine.

A CIVIL WAR VETERUN SENDS COMMUNICATION

Adam Kern Has a Few Conflicting Ideas With Those Expressed by Judge Dawson Last Friday

Adam Kern, a well known Civil war veteran of this city, sends the following communication to the Democrat-Forum in connection with the Memorial Day exercise and speech by Judge Dawson last Friday.

"After the meeting was dismissed, I privately complimented Judge Dawson on his oration I then suggested that he could have improved his speech by calling attention to a bill now before Congress which is being discussed, asking Congress to increase the pensions of us veterans who served three months or more, and are getting less than $50 a month.

"I understood him to reply that claim is too late and out of date. I rejoined that age did eliminate the justice nor detract from its merit.

"We veterans raise no objection to Judge Dawson's eulogy of the boys in khaki. I believe we as duly appreciate their patriotic work as Judge Dawson can.

"But we do claim that the Civil war in our country was as much in the interest of democracy, not only in our own country, but indirectly for all the nations of the world as the European war.

"Our veteran services to our country were against as formidable an enemy to our Republican democracy as the German monarchy.

"They were scarcely less severe and important than the work of our Revolutionary sires who gave birth to our Declaration of Independence. Our sacrifices were no less severe than our khaki comrades, although we did not cross the ocean to serve Old Glory in a foreign country. We had greater privation, hardships and less pay. A larger per cent of our boys were killed or lost their lives in the army.

"I don't believe there is a khaki soldier that is not patriotic enough and wise enough to favor the bill pending in Congress for an increase of pension to veteran soldiers who receive less than $50 per month, even before passing a bill for an increase of the bonus to our khaki comrades from $200 to $1,000.

"Perhaps I misunderstood Judge Dawson in our private conversation and if properly understood we are both on the same side of this great question. I hope so.

"ADAM KERN."

UP TO THE WOMEN TO CHANGE PRESENT POLITICS.

St. Louis, June 2—"It is up to the women to change the present system of politics" declared Glendy B. Arnold, chairman of the Board of Election Commissions in an address before the classes in citizenship of the St. Louis Equal Suffrage League at the Y. W. C. A. here.

"I hope the time will come when we will do away with the system which says that the victor shall have the spoils in politics," Arnold continued. "This is one of the things I believe the women will change All you need to do is to realize the power of the ballot—to realize that you can do more with it than the greatest army in the world.

"We need something at present to stimulate voting and I hope they will turn out at the polls in large numbers—but of course I don't hope they will all vote the same way."

POSTS LETTER IN FIREBOX.

St. Louis, June 2.—Mrs. Cynthia Sullivan, sixty, went out to mail a letter. She found a box with broken glass in it and a sign: "Pull down the hook." She pulled down the hook through the aperture caused by the broken glass, stuck the letter in the box and went on her way.

Hardly had she left when there was a clang of gongs and fire-fighting apparatus filled the streets. The letter was found in the fire box.

AIR MAIL ROUTE PROFITS.

Cleveland, June 2.—Uncle Sam's new air mail service promises to be a healthy revenue producer.

On the Cleveland-Chicago route an average of 400 pounds of mail is being carried each way a day. At the aerial rate of six cents per ounce this brings in $762 a day.

Rainfall Was 1½ Inches.

The rainfall Saturday night and Sunday amounted to one and one half inches according to Weather Observer Brink.

ROCK ISLAND YARD MASTER TESTIFIES

Wife Gains Twenty Pounds Taking Tanlac—"Wouldn't Be Without It," He Says.

Still another widely known and popular railrod man comes forward with his unqualified endorsement for Tanlac, this time it is C. D. Blatherick, yard master of the C. R. I. & P. Railroad, Kansas City, Kan., who resides at 341 11th St., that city.

"My wife has actually gained twenty pounds since she began taking Tanlac," said Mr. Blatherick recently, "and has been benefited so much in every way that I am glad to make this statement.

"She was in such a nervous and rundown condition for the past two years that she was confined to her bed much of the time. She was subject to frequent attacks of sick headaches, and often had spells of dizziness. She also suffered intense pain from gas on her stomach, pains in the back, and what seemed to be a complete nervous breakdown; she also had a severe attack of Influenza, which left her so weak she could hardly stand.

"She has been wonderfully benefited by Tanlac; in fact she is almost like a different person. She has been relieved entirely of stomach trouble, headache, and backache. I am delighted with what Tanlac has done for her, and we would not be without it now for anything."

Tanlac is sold in Maryville by the Koch Pharmacy and by A. M. Colly, Conception Junction; H. M. Lincoln, Pickering, and Carter Pharmacy, Burington Junction, Mo., and in Barnard, by Bear Drug Store, in Elmo by King Drug Co., and in Clearmont by Dr. W. H. Wiley; Ravenwood by C. A. Shunk. —Adv.

Board Rejected All Bids.

The school board Saturday rejected all bids on the new Douglas school building. They will re-advertise for bids this week and will meet again Saturday night. Only one bid for the building was submitted and several bids for the plumbing were presented.

Don't expect to get through a hot summer of hard work without a sick spell, if you start with your system full of impurities. To avoid a break-down in the busy season begin now taking Prickly Ash Bitters, the remedy for men. It will purify the blood, liver and bowels and put the system in a healthy condition. Wabash Ditcher Here.

The Wabash have their ditcher at work on their track near Maryville this week to clean up their ditches and streams. Today they are working west of Maryville.

If You Use Coal

The coal outlook for next winter is becoming more serious each day from all reports that we can get and we would advise early purchases for next winter's use. It is really more serious than last year as coal miners are scarcer, consequently the output will necessarily be short. The railroad equipment is badly run down and with the harvest crop outlook the railroads will be taxed to their utmost. Consequently the movement of coal will be very slow.

You can see the conditions. Use your own judgment. Do not let your feed bins run to low as feed stuff is getting awfully scarce and very hard to get.

LETTERS OF SYMPATHY SENT TO BARNARD PARENTS

Personal Missive From Red Cross Nurse to Parents of Barnard Soldier Who Died in France.

The following letters were received by Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Dunn of Barnard, concerning the death of their son, Alvin, who died of wounds received in France:

Base Hospital 60 A. P. O. 731, Bagvilles Sur Meuse, March 29, 1919.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Dunn,
Barnard, Mo.,

My Dear Mr. and Mrs. Dunn—

I know by this time that you have received information from the War department of the death of your son, Alvin M. Dunn. I wrote to you twice during his illness and to his brother and several friends for him. He talked often of his family and did so long for letters. I wrote to his old company, and to the Central Post Office of France to forward his mail to his hospital. One letter came from a sister before he died, but he said that she seemed not to know that he was sick. But he was glad to have that letter and read it over and over. A dozen letters came a week after his death, and I have sent them back home.

Alvin was at this hospital a long time and I talked with him many times He was a splendid brave boy and made many friends among the nurses, doctors and patients. I feel that your greatest comfort will be to know that he had the very closest care and attention, and that some one was near at all times to be kind to him.

His bed was up close to the stove and on Christmas day he enjoyed the decorations in the ward and the dinner and the sack which was filled by the Red Cross for each soldier, I remember how he smiled and how beautiful and bright his eyes were. He seemed to be better and we began to believe that he might get better, but in spite of all that could be done for him he died on December 31, having been brought here November 1, from the fighting ground, the Argonne Woods.

He was buried in the military cemetery No. 6, at Bagvilles Sur Meuse, with military honors. His coffin was draped in the flag and a detail of soldiers to do the last act of love. The Protestant Chaplain read the beautiful service and gave a prayer for the comfort of the dear family in far away America. Please think of your boy as having been among friends as at best among other brave men on a beautiful sunny hillside overlooking a beauftiul valley through which flows the river Meusse. I do not know what effects he had, but the hospital authorities take charge of such things and after a long time they will be sent to you. I wish I could make you understand the personal interest that is taken in these boys and how good the nurses and doctors are to them. As I write I can recall every feature of Alvin's face, and let me assure you that our sorrow was great that we could not send him back to you a well and happy boy.

As a representative of the Red Cross I am permitted to express the sympathy of that organization, as well as my own.

As your boy spoke frequently of his love for his parents and family, I feel that you will be comforted a little.

With best wishes, I am sincerely,
EVALINA HARRIS,
Red Cross Sec.

Base Hospital No. 60, April 13, 1919.

Dear Mrs. Dunn—I received your letter and sure was glad to hear from you and very glad to be of service to you in telling you something.

Your son, Alvin, was very patient in his suffering and spoke of home and of you quite frequently. He showed me all the pictures he had. He got one letter, I believe, but the rest were sent back, having come too late for him

He spoke of his brother, Carl, and I believe the Red Cross Searcher wrote for him to his brother and you. There was a friend of his whom he would have liked to seen. We did not send for his brother as we expected to move him to another hospital as soon as he was able and he was satisfied when he explained this to him.

I liked him very much. He told me he was going to do motor cycle racing when he got home and well again, but I really don't believe he ever expected to get home. He is buried in a cemetery on a hill but I don't know where. He was buried with military service, as all soldiers are, and to me that seems to be a better resting place than on the battlefield.

In regard to the picture which I sent you, I thought possibly some of you had none and would be glad to get it. Of course if you don't care for it I would like to have it again and some day I will send you a picture of myself so you can see what I look like, as the nurse who helped to take care of your boy.

You may rest assured Alvin was made comfortable while in the hospital and was given special diet according to his taste for we prepared it in the diet kitchen so thus he might have what he cared for particularly. He had the best doctor here and he sympathized with him very much and hated to loose him for he worked so very hard over him. The doctor was a very careful man and all the patients and nurses liked him, he was so good to all.

Well we are leaving here very soon, we are all packed and ready to leave now, so I expect to be home soon. You just wrote in time or possibly I would not have gotten it until I got back in the States. I sure will be disappointed if I don't get to go right back.

I have had a leave and visited the southern part of France which is a very beautiful part of the country. The sun seems to shine there most of the time. Here in the northeast part it rains all the time. We have had about three weeks in all of sunshine since October 1st. This sure is the most gloomy spot on the globe.

I am very lonesome now as we have no patients to care for as our men are being sent home We surely will be going soon.

My home address is 15 McDonald St. W. Toledo, Ohio, if you write before July. I expect to be married then and will move out of the city.

Well, dear Mrs. Dunn, I hope I have lessened in a way your anxiety Don't worry about your boy, just think it is God's will. After all, we are all born to die. Your boy was no coward, which is something to be proud of and the good Lord will reward you in some way.

I must bring this letter to a close now, may God bless you.

I remain sincerely,
MISS CLARA M. KONG.

INSTRUMENTS NEEDED FOR MARYVILLE BAND

Band Practice Tonight at Scout Headquarters—Expect New Headquarters Soon.

Band leader Alfred P. Gsell (pronounced Gazell) has outlined the band work, and finds that there are needed two flutes, two oboes, one basson, three saxaphones, six clarinets, four cornets, one baritone, three trombones, three basses and tympany, also four French horns and several tenors. This and the list we already have will give Maryville a band of fifty four pieces.

A Big Help in College Work.

Mr. Gsell points out that boys expecting to attend college in the next year or so should not over look the opportunity it furnishes them by learning to play a band instrument.

Band practice tonight at Scout Hdq. at 7:30 p. m., the second band practice will be held there as the band room which they have rented, over Tindall & Smith Plumbing Shop is undergoing repairs, will not be in readiness until next practice night.

Mr. Gsell will have his studio in the band room, his hours during the day will be from 8 until 11:30 a. m. and 1 to 5 p. m., and Tuesdays and Fridays from 7 until 10 p. m. Persons desiring to arrange for private lessons may leave word at the Commercial Club rooms this week, after which time they can find Mr. Gsell at his studio during hours mentioned.

WOMEN ARE ALL FLIRTS.

Evanston, Ill., June 2.—That girls are all flirts is the assertion of Miss Mary Bartelme, of the Juvenile Court, who told the Evanston Woman's Club that eyes are given to flirt with.

Yetta, a pretty little seventeen-year-old miss, just couldn't make her eyes behave, so her father brought her to court.

"She's a little flirt," said the father. "I can't make her stop it. I don't know what to do."

"I told him," said Miss Bartelme, "that every normal woman is a flirt.

"Every woman who got a husband flirted to get him. And that is not all—those who failed to get husbands are sorry now and wish they had flirted a little.

"That's what those eyes of violet depths of blue are for. Blue or any other color. It's all the same."

Watch the Little Pimples; They are Nature's Warning

Unsightly and Disfiguring Signals of Bad Blood.

Pimples on the face and other parts of the body are warnings from Nature that your blood is sluggish and impoverished. Sometimes they foretell eczema, boils, blisters, and other skin disorders that burn like flames of fire.

They mean that your blood needs S. S. S. to purify it and cleanse it of these impure accumulations that can cause unlimited trouble. This remedy is the greatest vegetable blood purifier known, and contains no minerals or chemicals to injure the most delicate skin.

Go to your drug store, and get a bottle of S. S. S. today, get rid of those unsightly, disfiguring pimples, and other skin irritations. It will cleanse your blood thoroughly. For special medical advice free, address Medical Director, 41 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and the Farmer

THERE is no general class of men who understand so thoroughly, and appreciate so well, the service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as do the farmers of the Middle West.

Wherever he may live the farmer is as familiar with the dark green tank wagon as he is with the conveyance which brings the mail carrier. He knows that his requirements of petroleum products will be provided.

He depends upon the service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), confident that the company will deliver to him whatever products he needs, when he needs them, and at a price which is fair.

During the past two or three strenuous years the farmer of America has carried the responsibility for feeding the world. Every hour of every day he was busy, and every minute was precious.

To multiply the effectiveness of his own and his employes' labor, he installed modern equipment—tractors, trucks, cultivating and harvesting machinery.

To run these machines gasoline, kerosene, lubricating oils, and greases were absolutely necessary. To get them the farmer would have been forced to take hours of time going to town were it not for the distributing facilities of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). The Company brought the products he needed to the farm, even to the tractor in the field.

It is this kind of service which has brought the farmer and the Company into such close and such friendly relations. It is this kind of service which emphasizes the usefulness of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as a public servant.

Hopkins Journal.

The commencement exercises of the graduates of the eighth grade from the rural schools of Hopkins township were held at the Christian church Thursday evening. There were ten graduates.

Wm. Applegate sends up blue grass grown in the Hopkins cemetery that is four feet in length and Frank New, Jr., left some grown on the Johnson farm east of town that is eight inches longer than the Applegate grass. Don't talk to us about the blue grass of Kentucky—we have that state beat.

Roy Sturgean is the jovial and accommodating manager of the egg, poultry and cream station recently established by the Farmers Union in the building once occupied by the Warren blacksmith shop.

"Skeeter" Rickard is now in the United Siatgs again for a few days stay before making his fifth trip across the briny deep on the great ship, the Mt. Vernon. Skeete has visited many historic spots in America as well as abroad—but after all there's no place like home and a release from service even a little bit before August would no doubt be appreciated.

Decoration Day was appropriately observed in Hopkins. The exercises were held in the afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The soldiers of all wars, the Hopkins band, the ministers, school children and citizens met at the Methodist church and marched to the Presbyterian church where the exercises were rendered. The meeting was presided over by Mayor C. E. Donlin and the ministers all had part in the program. Lieut. Ted Rusk, the first to volunteer in the World War from Nodaway county was introduced to the assembly and make a short talk.

Miss Crystal Everhart of Pickering has been elected as one of the grade teachers in the school here the coming year.

Wray Mahan is now owner of the Mrs. Eri Edmonds property in east Hopkins, the transfer being made Monday and will get possession soon, the price paid for the residence being $1700. Mrs. Edmonds will leave at once for Colorado Springs for an extended visit in the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Goodson and from now on will likely make her home with the children.

Jack Robinson, who was with the 35th division in France as a supply sergeant, arrived in Hopkins last week and will again enter the employ of the Wolfers Mercantile Company.

Sheriff John Dowden was in Pickering the other day, being enroute to Gaynor to see his sister who is reported as quite sick. One of his deputies goes through here frequently, but it is not to Gaynor nor to see a sick sister, either. Smiles are now in order.—Pickering Items.

European Corn Borer.

The "European Corn Borer" may appear almost anywhere in the United States this year, but up to this time it is only known to exist in limited areas in Massachusetts and New York. The infectation was just recently discovered in New York state, as there may be other places where the terrible corn pest has as yet been unidntifid.

Other catepillars that feed on corn may look like the "European Corn Borer" to those not thoroughly acquainted with the pest. The presence of the "European Corn Borer" may be detected by broken tassels with sawdust like material at the breaks, and also by holes in the stalks, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. The borer enters the ears through the husk, the stem and the cob. If there is any doubt concerning the identity of this pest send a specimen to the Missouri State Boar of Agriculture at Jefferson City. Free Bulletin and life-colored plates of the "European Corn Borer" in its different phases will be sent free of charge on request of any farmer.

At the spring season of the year the borer hides in last year's stalks, which (along with all weeds) should be burned to keep the pest from becoming active later. The "European Corn Borer" not only infests corn but is found also in certain garden and ornamental plants.

ASKS 2 MILLIONS FOR ROADS.

Marion County, Missouri, May Call a Big Bond Election.

Palmyra, Mo., May 31.—An election to bond Marion County for a million and a half dollars to build good roads will probably be ordered at the next meeting of the county court. Petitions are now being circulated. Both Palmyra and Hannibal are enthusiastic over the proposition. Government and state aid will swell the amount to 2 millions, sufficient to put in shape the 500 miles of roads in the county.

COMMISSION ON REVISED STATUTES TO BE COSTLY

Jefferson City, May 31.—It is estimated that six months' time will be required to prepare the revised statutes of 1919 by the commission of sixteen members created by te recent session of the general assembly. For paper and for printing and binding the statutes, 20,000 copies of three volumes each, an appropriation of $156,000 was made. This is exclusive in part of the cost of the commission.

For this purpose the assembly appropriated $30,000, or so much as shall be necessary. This will not be enough by nearly $20,000.

Here is the daily cost of the commission, exclusive of "the necessary expenses while engaged in such revision work" in the language of the act:

Senators Robert S. McClintic, chairman; Walter C. Goodson, Von Mayes, Frank G. Harris, J. W. McKnight, A. E. L. Gardner, Conway Elder and Seth Young; Representatives Samuel F. O'Fallon, H. W. Campbell, D. F. Warren, secretary; Jones Parker, Walter E. Bailey, N. T.. Cave, Frank C. Wilkinson and Frank H. Farris, each $10 a day, or a total of $160 a day.

Legislative pay is computed consecutively. For intsance, each member of the commission will draw $300 from the month of June. Sunday is paid for the same as any other day, as well as holidays, in the legislative wage scale.

Therefore, the cost of the commission to the state will total in salaries to members of the commission on a basis of six months' time $28,000, plus traveling expenses in coming from and going to their homes and their living expenses while in Jefefrson City.

Following is a summary of estimated expenses and salaries of the commission for six months.

Per Diem of Members	$28,000
Pay of Stenographers	7,200
Expenses of Members	7,500
Total	$43,500

This estimate will leave $6,500 of the $50,000 appropriation for the pay of such expert assisetance as may be employed. So it will be seen that there can not be anly great amount of extra help employed outside of the members and the stenographers.

Use Wood Ashes For Fertilizer.

Many growers of garden truck are today paying big prices for potash fertilizers, while Missouri gardners are throwing away this same high-priced potash in the form of wood ashes. If you insist on having a fertilizer with potash in it your fertilizer dealer is at present compelled to charge six dollars per unit for it, while every ton of ashes has from three to eight units in a very available form. The day when every farm had its "ash-hopper" where the ashes were dumped and water poured thru them to leach out the potash lye for making soft soap has almost passed. Soaps can be bought so cheaply now. The "ash-hopper" serves as an illustration of the fact, however, that potash is very easily leached out of ashes. Bear this in mind when you are tempted to throw wood ashes out into the back yard or make a walk of them. Carry them to the garden or keep them under cover. Besides the potash in them, ashes are about one-third lime, which will help to sweeten a sour soil or make a clay soil work better. Root crops are especially benefited by the use of potash and large quanities are used in certain potato growing centers.

One precaution must be observed in applying ashes to garden or field. They are caustic and will burn the leaves or stems of plants if brought into contact with them. It is better, therefore, to apply the ashes before planting and mix well with the soil by cultivation. Thus diluted they aer not harmful.

Ashes should not be considered as a concentrated fertilizer, but should be used in larger quantity than ordinary fertilizers. As much af fifteen hundred pounds per acre have been applied with good results.

Coal ashes have little fertilizing value, altho they may make some improvement in the working of a heavy clay garden soil. Remember that, if you burn wood, that with present prices of potash it would cost about thirty dollars to buy the potash in a ton of good unleached wood ashes.

PEG-LEG BANK "LEAKS."

Johnstown, Pa., May 31.—George Hilshansk, a one-legged man, had until a short time ago used the folds of his trousers where his "wooden peg" is connected as a bank. He lost more than $1,000 from his unique pocketbook and he will have a new bank from now on. J. E. Fornsberry, another one-legged man, has been charged with the theft. Hilshansk says he divulged his hiding place to Fornsberry.

Ralph Eversole went to St. Joseph this morning.

PREVENT SPREA OF DISEASE IN DISPOSING OF DEAD ANIMALS.

The carcasses of animals which have succumbed to infectious diseases like anthrox, hog choera, blackleg,, tuberculosis, etc., are charged with myriads of virulent disease germs, and just as long as they remain where scavengers can reach them and portions of them can be carried away promiscuously, they are a dangerous menace over a large territory to all animals which are liable to be attacked by disease germs. Even carcasses of animals which have died from other causes than infectious diseases, unless they are disposed of in a proper way, are a source of danger. Left on the surface of the ground, their odor soon invites scavengers to congregate and to bring with them the infectious material with which they may have become contaminated by eating carrion elsewhere.

Dead animals on the farm should be buried deep enough to prevent them from being dug up again, or they should be burned. To burn large carcasses like those of dead horses and cattle is difficult and laborious and requires a large quantity of fuel. In most instances it is more economical to bury them. All animals which have died from infectious diseases and are buried should be covered with a heavy layer of lime before the graves are closed.

In the winter, when the ground is frozen, it is more difficlt to dig graves than at other seasons of the year, but it is just in cold weather that disease germs remain alive and virulent, longest in dead organic matter and that scavengers travel the longest distances have the best appetites, and are most likely to carry disease germs on and in their bodies. The extra trouble of digging graves in the winter is easily offset by the greater danger it counteracts. Low temperature prevents the multiplication of disease germs, but many kinds of disease germs are not killed or deprived of their pernicious possibilities by exposure to a lower temperature than the lowest reached during an icy, artic winter.

Everywhere farmers not only should attend to the proper and safe disposal of the bodies of their own animals which unfortunately die, but they should insist on the proper disposal of the bodies of all animals which die anywhere in the regions in which their farms are located.

When food gives you distress you need a dose of Prickly Ash Bitters to relieve the stomach and help digestion. It is a man's remedy for the liver and bowels. Price $1.25 per bottle.—Maryville Drug Co., Specials Agents.—Adv.

FIRST CIVILIAN AIR PILOT LICENSE

Knoxville, Tenn., June 2.—The first civilian air pilot license granted to anyone in this section has been received by A. R. McConnell, of Maryville, Tenn., from the joint army and navy board of aeronautical cognizance. His license is No. 468.

He is Lieutenant McConnell, recently of the U. S. Air Service, who contemplates establishing an aeroplane passenger carrying service at Knoxville shortly.

Lieutenant McConnell is now believed to be on the return journey from Toronto, Canada, via the air route. He left for Canada two weeks ago to purchase a Canadian two-seater airplane.

In an interview before going to Canada Lieutenant McConnell stated that he expected to return to Knoxville about the first of July to begin active passenger-carrying work. He also contemplates establishing a school of flying here at a later date.

PLAN BANQUET FOR SOLDIERS

CHRISTIAN CHURCH TO ENLIST YOUNG MEN IN SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

A "SERVICE MAN" CLASS

To Be an Active Organization—Plan to Secure an Up-town Room for Meeting Place.

The Bible school of the First Christion church here under the direction of Rev. R. E. Snodgrass, pastor, and G. B. Roseberry, superintendent, is planning one of the biggest campaigns to enlist young men in Sunday school, that has ever been lauched in this section of the country.

The time set for the Drive is June 17 to 22. The committees will be busy every day from now on planning the campaign and getting every thing in shape for the big days of the drive.

On the evening of the 17th the campaign will open with a banquet with all returned soldier boys of Maryville and vicinity as honor guests and to which all young men not now attending Bible school and who will be prospects for the new class, will be invited. The people here have felt for some time that there should be some public function in recognition of the services of the soldiers and the committee is planning this banquet in their honor to supply this long felt need. They will welcome the assistance of all interested, in the securing of the names of all returned soldiers.

The committee has in hand now a prospective list of more than one hundred and this list will grow every day as new names are handed in. These young men will be organized into a huge Sunday school class the inaugura tion of which will close the campaign on the morning of the 22d.

The class will meet every Sunday morning at 9:30 and will be a part of the large school of the First Christian church and supported by it. The class will be under the instruction of the pastor Rev. R. E. Snodgrass who, being a young man, will enter heartily into all the activities of the class. It is intended that the social features of the organization will be well taken care of and these will be developed after the organization has been perfected. Rev. Snodgrass has had much experience in men's classes and this will no doubt insure the success of the undertaking.

Inasmuch as all of the rooms in the church building are already running over with the other departments of the school it will be necessary to secure an up town room near the church as the meeting place for this class. As this organization is to especially welcome all returned soldier boys and will honor them in every possible way it seems fitting and proper that this class should be organized as a living memorial to those who have given their lives in behalf of humanity with the hope that it will perpetuate thru its existence the principles for which they bled and died.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR AG. WORK

G. B. HOLMES, FRED WOLFERS AND BERT COOPER TO SOLICIT FUNDS

BACKED BY COM'L CLUB

Subscription to Take the Place of Funds Raised for Annual Nodaway County Agricultural and Domestic Science Show.

In order to extend the work of Vitalized Agriculture and Rural Life work through the schools of Nodaway county and keep this county in the lead and the example of other states that have adopted the Nodaway County plan, the Commercial Club voted last Monday night to get back of the movement financially and appointed a committee to raise the funds. Between four and five hundred dollars are needed. This subscription will be taken this year instead of the subscription here-to-fore taken for the Nodaway County Agricultural and Domestic Science Association as sufficient funds for that contest are now already on hand. The Vitalized Agriculture will play an important part in the show and contest this fall.

President Geo. L. Wilfley of the Commercial Club appointed G. B. Holmes, Fred Wolfers and Bert Cooper as a committee to take the subscription for this work and they will call upon Maryville progressives Tuesday or Wednesday for their contribution to this very important Agriculture movement. Nodaway County was recently visited by Senor Max Salus, representative from Chilean government of South America to Study the Vitalized Agriculture in the rural schools of Nodaway County as models to shape their school after and went away with glowing reports of finding just the work he wanted to see. Dr. H. J. Waters, formerly dean of the Missouri State College of Agriculture and afterwards president of the State College of Agriculture of Kansas recently made a trip to Nodaway county to study the system as used in the schools here and says "If the best young men are to be kept on the farm the best of the young women must be taught to love the farm and that is the attitude that Vitalized Agriculture is giving the boys and girls in this county." Dr. Winship of Boston manifests practically the same interest and likewise others who have studied the work. This is an Agricultural county, second to none in the country and the commercial club feels that we cannot afford to lose a single opportunity to push this splendid Agricultural and educational enterprise that is capturing commendation of the foremost educators of the whole country. You will greatly assist the committee if you will give your subscription readily when these busy men call upon you.

FEDERALS TAKE STANBERRY RED SOX TO 18-8 CLEANING

Erratic Game Staged on Fair Grounds Diamond—Visitors "Blow Up" in First Three Innings.

The Maryville Federals walked away from the Stanberry Red Sox by an 18 to 8 score yesterday afternoon at the Fair Grounds diamond in an erratic exhibition of the national pastime.

The game was scheduled to begin at 3:30 but owing to the lateness of the visitors in arriving, the contest did not begin until nearly five.

The first three innings was a comedy of errors with Stanberry nine playing the part of the "goat" and Maryville garnering 12 runs out of the fray. The Feds took advantage of the confusion of their guests, and time after time the "hit and run" was staged with the bewildered Sox holding the sack.

After the opening smoke had cleared, both teams settled down, and played fairly tight ball for the remainder of the show.

Bluell did the hurling for the Federals with Manager Black on the receiving end.

Revival Next Fall.

At a meeting of the Christian church board held yesterday afternoon arrangements were made for a revival meeting next fall to begin the first Sunday in November. The pastor, Rev. R. E. Snodgrass, will do the preaching and local talent will furnish the music.

Kansas City Minister Tells of Red Problem in the U. S.—Close of Annual Convention.

Bishop F. W. Warne, a missionary who has spent thirty-one years in India, delivered the sermon yesterday morning at the First M. E. Church in connection with the annual District Convention of the Epworth League, which closed there last night with an address by Rev. S. D. Harkness of Kansas City.

The Bishop told the young people of the convention, and many others who had congregated at the church to hear him talk, of the experiences which he has had during his long years in the Far East. He told a complete story of the work which is being accomplished among the heathen of that country and the manner in which the people are waking up to the Christian religion and dropping the old time ceremonies and form of the Mohammedan faith.

"Accordingto the customs of India," said the speaker, "a woman is practically a slave from the time of her birth. Girls are married when they are eighteen years old, and are never allowed to remarry. The man chooses his bride and she is forced to live with him. If he dies she becomes a slave of his relatives."

The Bishop then told of the enlightenment which is being brought to these people by the American missionaries and the eagerness with which the natives listen to the words of the foreign speakers.

Bishop Warne spoke of the method which is used in first speaking to a group of natives. "The older methods were to engage in debates with the native priests in regard to their religious views, but that has changed and the newer method is to appeal more to the intellect of the people themselves." He then illustrated with an umbrella and two handkerchiefs the manner in which the idea of Christianity is brought before the minds of the people. The handkerchiefs were tied on the umbrella in a manner to divide it up into three divisions, each of which reprtsented a phase of the Christian religion "The first space illustrates the Divine Father," said Bishop Warne, "the second, His appearance on earth among men, and the third, His ascention into Heaven."

The Bishop stated that the idea is brought before the minds of the natives in a manner which makes them remember. One of the points which the speaker brought out was that the people of India are open to a religion which will take the place of the ancient heathen worship which they now have, and that the people seem to be grasping for knowledge and enlightenment.

Bishop Warne told of the pleasures which he has had in India in connection with the work which he has accomplished there and urged upon every young person who felt the call to become a Missionary to answer it and engage in the work.

Rev. Samuel D. Harkness, of the Emanuel Presbyterian church of Kansas City, and a former minister in Maryville, spoke on "The Church in the New Era."

Rev. Harkness told of the great post war problems which are now coming up throughout the world, and the manner in which they must be met. "Bolshevism is one of the biggest problems which the world has to face at this time," he said, "and there is just as much of a menace of the Reds here in this country as there is in Russia. New York," he said, "is the great center of the Bolsheviks here in the United States, and they are attempting to create havoc here as they have been doing in Russia and Siberia."

Rev. Harkness brought out that the church was one of the greatest enemies of the Bolsheviks and that organized religious activity was one of the most forceful ways of combating the great evil.

At the afternoon session of the Convention yesterday, Miss Ruby Irwin, of this city, spoke on the "Institute

READ READY TO MAKE A RETURN TRIP IN NC—4

Commander Awaiting Word From His Superiors to Make Return Flight to America—May Be Decorated.

London, June 2.—Lieutenant Commander Read, skipper of the NC-4, declared today that he is ready to set out on a return voyage to America if his superiors order it. Read, Towers, and Ballenger have been summoned to Paris and it may be that they will be decorated by Wilson, it was unofficially reported.

GERMAN STATES FORM REPUBLICS

MUCH ALARM FELT OVER RHINELAND PROCLAMATION

MOVEMENT IS GROWING

Bavaria, Austria, West Prussia and Hanover Ready to Set Up Independent Governments.

Paris, June 2.—The German government is greatly alarmed over the Rhineland separatist movement which culminated in the proclamation of a Rhine republic Sunday, with a capital at Wiesbaden. The seccessionist movement among the German border states has become general and the latest communists were that there are movements afoot to set up independent overnments which include Bavaria, Austria, West Prussia and Hanover, as well as Rhineland.

INVITE WILSON TO ST. LOUIS

Democratic State Committee Cables Indorsement of President Wilson's Work.

George Robb Ellison, a member of the Democratic State Committee, returned this morning from St. Louis where he has been attending a meeting of the Democratic State Committee and a meeting of Democrats from all over the state. Mr. Ellison was a member of the resolutions committee.

The committee indorsed the League of Nations without a dissenting vote. An invitation was extended to President Wilson to make his first address to the American people, after his return from Europe, at a mass meeting to be held in St. Louis for the purpose.

Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the national committee, Secretary Tumulty and other national leaders attended the meeting in St. Louis.

BELA KUN READY TO QUIT

Amsterdam, June 2.—The Hungarian government at Budapest headed by Bela Kun, the Red Dictator, has announced its willingness to resign, and Herr Gorami, the socialist leader and the adherents of Count Karolyi have been charged to form a new ministry, according to Vienna dispatches today.

Miss Faubian Dead.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Faubian, who are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. W. Willoughby, and family of West Seventh street, received a telegram from Thermopolis, Wyo., this morning, announcing the death of their daughter, Miss Conelia Faubian, at that place yesterday morning. Her brother, Benjamin Faubian, arrived there Friday. Funeral arrangements have not been completed at this time.

PEACE TERMS TO AUSTRIANS

FORMAL PRESENTATION MADE SHORTLY BEFORE NOON BY CLEMENCEAU

A TRAGIC SPECTACLE

Proceeding Held in Ancient Castle at St. Germain—Allies Expect Reply Within Week.

Features of Treaty.

Former Austro-Hungarian government ceases to exist, replaced in Austria by Republican government.

All Austrian naval and air forces must be demobilized.

Republic must recognize right of the Allies to bring war offenders to trial.

Republic must recognize the complete independence of Hungary, Czecho Slovakia, Jugo-Slavia.

Republic must agree to accept the League of Nations and the peace conference charter.

Paris, June 2.—The second act in the world's peace drama was staged shortly after noon today when peace terms of the Allied and Associated powers were presented to the Austrian delegates at St. Germain. In a formal address just before the treaty was handed to the Austrian envoys, Premier Clemenceau said that the Allies expected a reply within a week. The spectacle was a most tragic one, with the most virile nations in the world today reciting the terms to representatives of the skeleton of what was once the powerful Austrian empire, and which they must accept if they expect their country to live. The proceedings which will make the Hapsburg rule in southern Europe hereafter, simply a matter of history forever, were held in the ancient castle of St. Germain, where the royal exiles, during the days of the empire mourned the loss of their throne. The curse called down upon the head of Emperor Joseph had reached its climax. Only a portion of the former dual empire was represented as the entente will not treat with the Hungarians until the Soviet government at Budapest is stamped out. In remitting proofs of the draft of the treaty to the Austrians, Clemenceau warned the enemy delegates that no oral discussions would be permitted and that all protests must be handed in writing within a fort night.

London, June 2.—A trial of all the Austrian war criminals before an inter Allied tribunal is one of the main terms of the treaty with Austria according to the Daily Mail. The other two are the surrender by Austria of all her merchant fleet and the demobilization of her army and navy and air forces.

ALLIES DEMAND SIGNATURE.

Paris, June 2.—An ultimatum demanding that the treaty be signed before June 15 will accompany the Allies rejection of the German counter peace proposals, it was learned today.

Mrs. Jessie F. Colden and her sister, Mrs. Mark Heflin of Wilcox, left last night for Denver, Colo., to spend a few weeks.

MEMBER MISSOURI PRESS ASSOCIATION

MISSOURI STATE LETTER.

Jefferson City, June 2.—Governor Gardner has approved seventy-five more bills passed by the legislature. Nearly all of the children's code bills were among those approved.

These include three prohibiting children from being employed in factories; limiting hours of employment of children to forty-eight a week; prohibiting employment of girls under 18 in the messenger service of telegraph companies; making child abandonment a felony; requiring segregation of epileptics in a colony for the feeble-minded; fixing the legal age for marriage at 15 years; prohibiting employment of women three weeks before or three weeks after child-birth; prohibiting recorder from issuing a marriage license to persons under 15 years of age, except upon order of the judges of the circuit and probate courts; requiring all girls under 18 and men under 21 to have the consent of father, mother or guardian before a license to marry can be issued, and making appointment of a county supervisor of public welfare optional with the county court.

The governor has signed the disbarment act drawn by the State Bar Association. Under the old law conviction of an offense was a necessary prelude to disbarment. Under the bill just approved disbarment may be had on testimony that would convict.

Other bills approved were several insurance measures sponsored by Davidson of St. Louis, one providing for incorporation of life insurance companies under the laws of Missouri, whose capital stock has been impaired to the extent of 50 per cent; erecting a state bureau of markets; appropriating $100,000 for interior decorations of the new state house; appropriating $2,000 to the widow of Captain Eli Jenkins, a prison officer, murdered while on duty by convicts in the penitentiary February 21, 1918; increasing fees of assessors and salaries of circuit clerks.

None of the big appropriation bills have been signed, and a number of general bills are still on the governor's desk.

St. Louis, June 2.—"No American realizes how dear the League of Nations is to President Wilson's heart," declared Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the president in an address at a Democratic State Committee mass meeting here. "No man and no party that places obstacles in the way of the League of Nations will survive long enough to outlive the memory of such an offense against humanity and civilization," Tumulty continued.

Touching on the conduct of the war, Tumulty said:

"Do you realize that if all the money appropriated by congress to run the United States Government from the time of George Washington down to the present time were totaled, it would not reach the sum appropriated by congress for America's share in the European war? And yet there has not been one charge of a dollar spent dishonestly.

"Every thought of the government in conducting this war has been directed toward making it as humane as possible. The first thought has been for the soldiers and their comfort. There never before has been so much attention paid to the welfare of the soldiers. The Democratic party has done everything it could to make that awful thing called war as humane as possible.

"We Democrats are not afraid to put our case in the hands of President Wilson."

St. Louis, June 2.—The story of the rescue of the now famous "Lost Battalion" whose commander, Lieut Col. Whittlesey, told the Huns to "Go to Hell" when they demanded its surrender was told first hand by a member of the 50th Aero squadron, which unit has reached Scott Field, Bellville, where it will be stationed permanently.

It was the 50th Aero squadron which discovered the predicament of the battalion surrounded by the enemy.

Lieut. Robert M. Andrews, one of the pilots of the squadron and Lieut. Rodgers, an observer located the battalion.

MRS. MAY COULD NOT WORK

Made Well and Strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbia, Pa.—"I was very weak and run down and had dragging-down pains and pains in my back. I could not get around to do my work and had to sit down and rest often during the day. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the papers and read the testimonials, so I thought I would try it. Now I am healthier than I ever was in my life, and can recommend it to any woman who suffers as I did." —Mrs. ELIZABETH MAY, R.F.D. No. 1, Columbia, Pa.

The reason Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, curative influence, and the letters which we are constantly publishing from women in every section of this country prove beyond question the merit of this famous root and herb medicine.

A CIVIL WAR VETERUN SENDS COMMUNICATION

Adam Kern Has a Few Conflicting Ideas With Those Expressed by Judge Dawson Last Friday

Adam Kern, a well known Civil war veteran of this city, sends the following communication to the Democrat-Forum in connection with the Memorial Day exercise and speech by Judge Dawson last Friday.

"After the meeting was dismissed, I privately complimented Judge Dawson on his oration. I then suggested that he could have improved his speech by calling attention to a bill now before Congress which is being discussed, asking Congress to increase the pensions of us veterans who served three months or more, and are getting less than $50 a month.

"I understood him to reply that claim is too late and out of date. I rejoined that age did eliminate the justice nor detract from its merit.

"We veterans raise no objection to Judge Dawson's eulogy of the boys in khaki. I believe we as duly appreciate their patriotic work as Judge Dawson can.

"But we do claim that the Civil war in our country was as much in the interest of democracy, not only in our own country, but indirectly for all the nations of the world as the European war.

"Our veteran services to our country were against as formidable an enemy to our Republican democracy as the German monarchy.

"They were scarcely less severe and important than the work of our Revolutionary sires who gave birth to our Declaration of Independence. Our sacrifices were no less severe than our khaki comrades, although we did not cross the ocean to serve Old Glory in a foreign country. We had greater privation, hardships and less pay. A larger per cent of our boys were killed or lost their lives in the army.

"I don't believe there is a khaki soldier that is not patriotic enough and wise enough to favor the bill pending in Congress for an increase of pension to veteran soldiers who receive less than $50 per month, even before passing a bill for an increase of the bonus to our khaki comrades from $200 to $1,000.

"Perhaps I misunderstood Judge Dawson in our private conversation and if properly understood we are both on the same side of this great question. I hope so.

"ADAM KERN."

UP TO THE WOMEN TO CHANGE PRESENT POLITICS.

St. Louis, June 2—"It is up to the women to change the present system of politics" declared Glendy B. Arnold, chairman of the Board of Election Commissions in an address before the classes in citizenship of the St. Louis Equal Suffrage League at the Y. W. C. A. here.

"I hope the time will come when we will do away with the system which says that the victor shall have the spoils in politics," Arnold continued. "This is one of the things I believe the women will change. All you need to do is to realize the power of the ballot—to realize that you can do more with it than the greatest army in the world.

"We need something at present to stimulate voting and I hope they will turn out at the polls in large numbers—but of course I don't hope they will all vote the same way."

POSTS LETTER IN FIREBOX.

St. Louis, June 2.—Mrs. Cynthia Sullivan, sixty, went out to mail a letter. She found a box with broken glass in it and a sign: "Pull down the hook." She pulled down the hook through the aperture caused by the broken glass, stuck the letter in the box and went on her way.

Hardly had she left when there was a clang of gongs and fire-fighting apparatus filled the streets. The letter was found in the fire box.

ROCK ISLAND YARD MASTER TESTIFIES

Wife Gains Twenty Pounds Taking Tanlas—"Wouldn't Be Without It," He Says.

Still another widely known and popular railrod man comes forward with his unqualified endorsement for Tanlac, this time it is C. D. Blatherick, yard master of the C. R. I. & P. Railroad, Kansas City, Kan., who resides at 341 11th St., that city.

"My wife has actually gained twenty pounds since she began taking Tanlac," said Mr. Blatherick recently, "and has been benefited so much in every way that I am glad to make this statement.

"She was in such a nervous and rundown condition for the past two years that she was confined to her bed much of the time. She was subject to frequent attacks of sick headaches, and often had spells of dizziness. She also suffered intense pain from gas on her stomach, pains in the back, and what seemed to be a complete nervous breakdown; she also had a severe attack of Influenza, which left her so weak she could hardly stand.

"She has been wonderfully benefited by Tanlac; in fact she is almost like a different person. She has been relieved entirely of stomach trouble, headache, and backache. I am delighted with what Tanlac has done for her, and we would not be without it now for anything."

Tanlac is sold in Maryville by the Koch Pharmacy and by A. M. Colly, Conception Junction; H. M. Lincoln, Pickering, and Carter Pharmacy, Burington Junction, Mo., and in Barnard, by Bear Drug Store, in Elmo by King Drug Co., and in Clearmont by Dr. W. H. Wiley; Ravenwood by C. A. Shunk. —Adv.

If You Use Coal

The coal outlook for next winter is becoming more serious each day from all reports that we can get and we would advise early purchases for next winter's use. It is really more serious than last year as coal miners are scarcer, consequently the output will necessarily be short. The railroad equipment is badly run down and with the harvest crop outlook the railroads will be taxed to their utmost. Consequently the movement of coal will be very slow.

You can see the conditions. Use your own judgment. Do not let your feed bins run to low as feed stuff is getting awfully scarce and very hard to get.

LETTERS OF SYMPATHY SENT TO BARNARD PARENTS

Personal Missive From Red Cross Nurse to Parents of Barnard Soldier Who Died in France.

The following letters were received by Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Dunn of Barnard, concerning the death of their son, Alvin, who died of wounds received in France:

Base Hospital 60 A. P. O. 731, Bagvilles Sur Meuse, March 29, 1919.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Dunn,
Barnard, Mo.,

My Dear Mr. and Mrs. Dunn—

I know by this time that you have received information from the War department of the death of your son, Alvin M. Dunn. I wrote to you twice during his illness and to his brother and several friends for him. He talked often of his family and did so long for letters. I wrote to his old company, and to the Central Post Office of France to forward his mail to his hospital. One letter came from a sister before he died, but he said that she seemed not to know that he was sick. But he was glad to have that letter and read it over and over. A dozen letters came a week after his death, and I have sent them back home.

Alvin was at this hospital a long time and I talked with him many times He was a splendid brave boy and made many friends among the nurses, doctors and patients. I feel that your greatest comfort will be to know that he had the very closest care and attention, and that some one was near at all times to be kind to him.

His bed was up close to the stove and on Christmas day he enjoyed the decorations in the ward and the dinner and the sack which was filled by the Red Cross for each soldier, I remember how he smiled and how beautiful and bright his eyes were. He seemed to be better and we began to believe that he might get better, but in spite of all that could be done for him he died on December 31, having been brought here November 1, from the fighting ground, the Argonne Woods.

He was buried in the military cemetery No. 6, at Bagvilles Sur Meuse, with military honors. His coffin was draped in the flag and a detail of soldiers to do the last act of love. The Protestant Chaplain read the beautiful service and gave a prayer for the comfort of the dear family in far away America. Please think of your boy as having been among friends as at best among other brave men on a beautiful sunny hillside overlooking a beauftiul valley through which flows the river Meusse. I do not know what effects he had, but the hospital authorities take charge of such things and after a long time they will be sent to you. I wish I could make you understand the personal interest that is taken in these boys and how good the nurses and doctors are to them. As I write I can recall every feature of Alvin's face, and let me assure you that our sorrow was great that we could not send him back to you a well and happy boy.

As a representative of the Red Cross I am permitted to express the sympathy of that organization, as well as my own.

As your boy spoke frequently of his love for his parents and family, I feel that you will be comforted a little.

With best wishes, I am sincerely,

EVALINA HARRIS,
Red Cross Sec.

Base Hospital No. 60, April 13, 1919.

Dear Mrs. Dunn—I received your letter and sure was glad to hear from you and very glad to be of service to you in telling you something.

Your son, Alvin, was very patient in his suffering and spoke of home and of you quite frequently. He showed me all the pictures he had. He got one letter, I believe, but the rest were sent back, having come too late for him

He spoke of his brother, Carl, and I believe the Red Cross Searcher wrote for him to his brother and you. There was a friend of his whom he would have liked to seen. We did not send for his brother as we expected to move him to another hospital as soon as he was able and he was satisfied when he explained this to him.

I liked him very much. He told me he was going to do motor cycle racing when he got home and well again, but I really don't believe he ever expected to get home. He is buried in a cemetery on a hill but I don't know where. He was buried with military service, as all soldiers are, and to me that seems to be a better resting place than on the battlefield.

In regard to the picture which I sent you, I thought possibly some of you had none and would be glad to get it. Of course if you don't care for it I would like to have it again and some day I will send you a picture of myself so you can see what I look like, as the nurse who helped to take care of your boy.

You may rest assured Alvin was made comfortable while in the hospital and was given special diet according to his taste for we prepared it in the diet kitchen so thus he might have what he cared for particularly. He had the best doctor here and he sympathized with him very much and hated to loose him for he worked so very hard over him. The doctor was a very careful man and all the patients and nurses liked him, he was so good to all.

Well we are leaving here very soon, we are all packed and ready to leave now, so I expect to be home soon. You just wrote in time or possibly I would not have gotten it until I got back in the States. I sure will be disappointed if I don't get to go right back.

I have had a leave and visited the southern part of France which is a very beautiful part of the country. The sun seems to shine there most of the time. Here in the northeast part it rains all the time. We have had about three weeks in all of sunshine since October 1st. This sure is the most gloomy spot on the globe.

I am very lonesome now as we have no patients to care for as our men are being sent home We surely will be going soon.

My home address is 15 McDonald St. W. Toledo, Ohio, if you write before July. I expect to be married then and will move out of the city.

Well, dear Mrs. Dunn, I hope I have lessened in a way your anxiety Don't worry about your boy, just think it is God's will. After all, we are all born to die. Your boy was no coward, which is something to be proud of and the good Lord will reward you in some way.

I must bring this letter to a close now, may God bless you.

I remain sincerely,

MISS CLARA M. KONG.

INSTRUMENTS NEEDED FOR MARYVILLE BAND

Band Practice Tonight at Scout Headquarters—Expect New Headquarters Soon.

Band leader Alfred P. Gsell (pronounced Gazell) has outlined the band work, and finds that there are needed two flutes, two oboes, one basson, three saxaphones, six clarinets, four cornets, one baritone, three trombones, three basses and tympany, also four French horns and several tenors. This and the list we already have will give Maryville a band of fifty four pieces.

A Big Help in College Work.

Mr. Gsell points out that boys expecting to attend college in the next year or so should not over look the opportunity it furnishes them by learning to play a band instrument.

Band practice tonight at Scout Hdq. at 7:30 p. m., the second band practice will be held there as the band room which they have rented, over Tindall & Smith Plumbing Shop is undergoing repairs, will not be in readiness until next practice night.

Mr. Gsell will have his studio in the band room, his hours during the day will be from 8 until 11:30 a. m. and 1 to 5 p. m., and Tuesdays and Fridays from 7 until 10 p. m. Persons desiring to arrange for private lessons may leave word at the Commercial Club rooms this week, after which time they can find Mr. Gsell at his studio during hours mentioned.

WOMEN ARE ALL FLIRTS.

Evanston, Ill., June 2.—That girls are all flirts is the assertion of Miss Mary Bartelme, of the Juvenile Court, who told the Evanston Woman's Club that eyes are given to flirt with.

Yetta, a pretty little seventeen-year-old miss, just couldn't make her eyes behave, so her father brought her to court.

"She's a little flirt," said the father. "I can't make her stop it. I don't know what to do."

"I told him," said Miss Bartelme, "that every normal woman is a flirt.

"Every woman who got a husband flirted to get him. And that is not all—those who failed to get husbands are sorry now and wish they had flirted a little.

"That's what those eyes of violet depths of blue are for. Blue or any other color. It's all the same."

Walter J. O'Beirn of Kansas City, has been appointed administrator of the estate of his father, Thomas H. O'Beirn, who died last May 25.

Crops Damaged by Floods.

Heavy rains in the vicinity of Pattonsburg last night caused the Grand river to overflow its banks and the residents along the bottom lands are suffering severe flood conditions it was reported today through the Wabash railroad. The Big Creek at Gallatin is also out of its banks and is reported to be causing much damage to crops in that locality.

Olin Shelton, who has been spending his furlough with his parents in Wilcox left last night for Nitro, W. Va.

Watch the Little Pimples; They are Nature's Warning

Unsightly and Disfiguring Signals of Bad Blood.

Pimples on the face and other parts of the body are warnings from Nature that your blood is sluggish and impoverished. Sometimes they foretell eczema, boils, blisters, and other skin disorders that burn like flames of fire.

They mean that your blood needs S. S. S. to purify it and cleanse it of these impure accumulations that can cause unlimited trouble. This remedy is the greatest vegetable blood purifier known, and contains no minerals or chemicals to injure the most delicate skin.

Go to your drug store, and get a bottle of S. S. S. today, get rid of those unsightly, disfiguring pimples, and other skin irritations. It will cleanse your blood thoroughly. For special medical advice free, address Medical Director, 41 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) and the Farmer

THERE is no general class of men who understand so thoroughly, and appreciate so well, the service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as do the farmers of the Middle West.

Wherever he may live the farmer is as familiar with the dark green tank wagon as he is with the conveyance which brings the mail carrier. He knows that his requirements of petroleum products will be provided.

He depends upon the service rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), confident that the company will deliver to him whatever products he needs, when he needs them, and at a price which is fair.

During the past two or three strenuous years the farmer of America has carried the responsibility for feeding the world. Every hour of every day he was busy, and every minute was precious.

To multiply the effectiveness of his own and his employes' labor, he installed modern equipment—tractors, trucks, cultivating and harvesting machinery.

To run these machines gasoline, kerosene, lubricating oils, and greases were absolutely necessary. To get them the farmer would have been forced to take hours of time going to town were it not for the distributing facilities of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). The Company brought the products he needed to the farm, even to the tractor in the field.

It is this kind of service which has brought the farmer and the Company into such close and such friendly relations. It is this kind of service which emphasizes the usefulness of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as a public servant.

Hopkins Journal.

The commencement exercises of the graduates of the eighth grade from the rural schools of Hopkins township were held at the Christian church Thursday evening. There were ten graduates.

Wm. Applegate sends up blue grass grown in the Hopkins cemetery that is four feet in length and Frank New, Jr., left some grown on the Johnson farm east of town that is eight inches longer than the Applegate grass. Don't talk to us about the blue grass of Kentucky—we have that state beat.

Roy Sturgean is the jovial and accommodating manager of the egg, poultry and cream station recently established by the Farmers Union in the building once occupied by the Warren blacksmith shop.

"Skeeter" Rickard is now in the United States again for a few days stay before making his fifth trip across the briny deep on the great ship, the Mt. Vernon. Skeete has visited many historic spots in America as well as abroad—but after all there's no place like home and a release from service even a little bit before August would no doubt be appreciated.

Decoration Day was appropriately observed in Hopkins. The exercises were held in the afternoon, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. The soldiers of all wars, the Hopkins band, the ministers, school children and citizens met at the Methodist church and marched to the Presbyterian church where the exercises were rendered. The meeting was presided over by Mayor C. E. Donlin and the ministers all had part in the program. Lieut. Ted Rusk, the first to volunteer in the World War from Nodaway county was introduced to the assembly and make a short talk.

Miss Crystal Everhart of Pickering has been elected as one of the grade teachers in the school here the coming year.

Wray Mahan is now owner of the Mrs. Eri Edmonds property in east Hopkins, the transfer being made Monday and will get possession soon, the price paid for the residence being $1700. Mrs. Edmonds will leave at once for Colorado Springs for an extended visit in the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Goodson and from now on will likely make her home with the children.

Jack Robinson, who was with the 35th division in France as a supply sergeant, arrived in Hopkins last week and will again enter the employ of the Wolfers Mercantile Company.

Sheriff John Dowden was in Pickering the other day, being enroute to Gaynor to see his sister who is reported as quite sick. One of his deputies goes through here frequently, but it is not to Gaynor nor to see a sick sister, either. Smiles are now in order.—Pickering Items.

European Corn Borer.

The "European Corn Borer" may appear almost anywhere in the United States this year, but up to this time it is only known to exist in limited areas in Massachusetts and New York. The infectation was just recently discovered in New York state, as there may be other places where the terrible corn pest has as yet been unidntifid.

Other catepillars that feed on corn may look like the "European Corn Borer" to those not thoroughly acquainted with the pest. The presence of the "European Corn Borer" may be detected by broken tassels with sawdust like material at the breaks, and also by holes in the stalks, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. The borer enters the ears through the husk, the stem and the cob. If there is any doubt concerning the identity of this pest send a specimen to the Missouri State Boar of Agriculture at Jefferson City. Free Bulletin and life-colored plates of the "European Corn Borer" in its different phases will be sent free of charge on request of any farmer.

At the spring season of the year the borer hides in last year's stalks, which (along with all weeds) should be burned to keep the pest from becoming active later. The "European Corn Borer" not only infests corn but is found also in certain garden and ornamental plants.

ASKS 2 MILLIONS FOR ROADS.

Marion County, Missouri, May Call a Big Bond Election.

Palmyra, Mo., May 31.—An election to bond Marion County for a million and a half dollars to build good roads will probably be ordered at the next meeting of the county court. Petitions are now being circulated. Both Palmyra and Hannibal are enthusiastic over the proposition. Government and state aid will swell the amount to 2 millions, sufficient to put in shape the 500 miles of roads in the county.

COMMISSION ON REVISED STATUTES TO BE COSTLY

Jefferson City, May 31.—It is estimated that six months' time will be required to prepare the revised statutes of 1919 by the commission of sixteen members created by te recent session of the general assembly. For paper and for printing and binding the statutes, 20,000 copies of three volumes each, an appropriation of $156,000 was made. This is exclusive in part of the cost of the commission.

For this purpose the assembly appropriated $30,000, or so much as shall be necessary. This will not be enough by nearly $20,000.

Here is the daily cost of the commission, exclusive of "the necessary expenses while engaged in such revision work" in the language of the act:

Senators Robert S. McClintic, chairman; Walter C. Goodson, Von Mayes, Frank G. Harris, J. W. McKnight, A. E. L. Gardner, Conway Elder and Seth Young; Representatives Samuel F. O'Fallon, H. W. Campbell, D. F. Warren, secretary; Jones Parker, Walter E. Bailey, N. T.. Cave, Frank C. Wilkinson and Frank H. Farris, each $10 a day, or a total of $160 a day.

Legislative pay is computed consecutively. For intsance, each member of the commission will draw $300 from the month of June. Sunday is paid for the same as any other day, as well as holidays, in the legislative wage scale.

Therefore, the cost of the commission to the state will total in salaries to members of the commission on a basis of six months' time $28,000, plus traveling expenses in coming from and going to their homes and their living expenses while in Jefefrson City.

Following is a summary of estimated expenses and salaries of the commission for six months.

Per Diem of Members	$28,000
Pay of Stenographers	7,200
Expenses of Members	7,500
Total	$43,500

This estimate will leave $6,500 of the $50,000 appropriation for the pay of such expert assisetance as may be employed. So it will be seen that there can not be anly great amount of extra help employed outside of the members and the stenographers.

Use Wood Ashes For Fertilizer.

Many growers of garden truck are today paying big prices for potash fertilizers, while Missouri gardners are throwing away this same high-priced potash in the form of wood ashes. If you insist on having a fertilizer with potash in it your fertilizer dealer is at present compelled to charge six dollars per unit for it, while every ton of ashes has from three to eight units in a very available form. The day when every farm had its "ash-hopper" where the ashes were dumped and water poured thru them to leach out the potash lye for making soft soap has almost passed. Soaps can be bought so cheaply now. The "ash-hopper" serves as an illustration of the fact, however, that potash is very easily leached out of ashes. Bear this in mind when you are tempted to throw wood ashes out into the back yard or make a walk of them. Carry them to the garden or keep them under cover. Besides the potash in them, ashes are about one-third lime, which will help to sweeten a sour soil or make a clay soil work better. Root crops are especially benefited by the use of potash and large quanities are used in certain potato growing centers.

One precaution must be observed in applying ashes to garden or field. They are caustic and will burn the leaves or stems of plants if brought into contact with them. It is better, therefore, to apply the ashes before planting and mix well with the soil by cultivation. Thus diluted they aer not harmful.

Ashes should not be considered as a concentrated fertilizer, but should be used in larger quantity than ordinary fertilizers. As much af fifteen hundred pounds per acre have been applied with good results.

Coal ashes have little fertilizing value, altho they may make some improvement in the working of a heavy clay garden soil. Remember that, if you burn wood, that with present prices of potash it would cost about thirty dollars to buy the potash in a ton of good unleached wood ashes.

PEG-LEG BANK "LEAKS."

Johnstown, Pa., May 31.—George Hilshansk, a one-legged man, had until a short time ago used the folds of his trousers where his "wooden peg" is connected as a bank. He lost more than $1,000 from his unique pocketbook and he will have a new bank from now on. J. E. Fornsberry, another one-legged man, has been charged with the theft. Hilshansk says he divulged his hiding place to Fornsberry.

Ralph Eversole went to St. Joseph this morning.

PREVENT SPREA OF DISEASE IN DISPOSING OF DEAD ANIMALS.

The carcasses of animals which have succumbed to infectious diseases like anthrox, hog choera, blackleg,, tuberculosis, etc., are charged with myriads of virulent disease germs, and just as long as they remain where scavengers can reach them and portions of them can be carried away promiscuously, they are a dangerous menace over a large territory to all animals which are liable to be attacked by disease germs. Even carcasses of animals which have died from other causes than infectious diseases, unless they are disposed of in a proper way, are a source of danger. Left on the surface of the ground, their odor soon invites scavengers to congregate and to bring with them the infectious material with which they may have become contaminated by eating carrion elsewhere.

Dead animals on the farm should be buried deep enough to prevent them from being dug up again, or they should be burned. To burn large carcasses like those of dead horses and cattle is difficult and laborious and requires a large quantity of fuel. In most instances it is more economical to bury them. All animals which have died from infectious diseases and are buried should be covered with a heavy layer of lime before the graves are closed.

In the winter, when the ground is frozen, it is more difficlt to dig graves than at other seasons of the year, but it is just in cold weather that disease germs remain alive and virulent, longest in dead organic matter and that scavengers travel the longest distances have the best appetites, and are most likely to carry disease germs on and in their bodies. The extra trouble of digging graves in the winter is easily offset by the greater danger it counteracts. Low temperature prevents the multiplication of disease germs, but many kinds of disease germs are not killed or deprived of their pernicious possibilities by exposure to a lower temperature than the lowest reached during an icy, artic winter.

Everywhere farmers not only should attend to the proper and safe disposal of the bodies of their own animals which unfortunately die, but they should insist on the proper disposal of the bodies of all animals which die anywhere in the regions in which their farms are located.

When food gives you distress you need a dose of Prickly Ash Bitters to relieve the stomach and help digestion. It is a man's remedy for the liver and bowels. Price $1.25 per bottle.—Maryville Drug Co., Specials Agents.—Adv.

FIRST CIVILIAN AIR PILOT LICENSE

Knoxville, Tenn., June 2.—The first civilian air pilot license granted to anyone in this section has been received by A. R. McConnell, of Maryville, Tenn., from the joint army and navy board of aeronautical cognizance. His license is No. 468.

He is Lieutenant McConnell, recently of the U. S. Air Service, who contemplates establishing an aeroplane passenger carrying service at Knoxville shortly.

Lieutenant McConnell is now believed to be on the return journey from Toronto, Canada, via the air route. He left for Canada two weeks ago to purchase a Canadian two-seater airplane.

In an interview before going to Canada Lieutenant McConnell stated that he expected to return to Knoxville about the first of July to begin active passenger-carrying work. He also contemplates establishing a school of flying here at a later date.

ATTENTION

COAL!! COAL!!

Don't forget I am still in the coal business and will be glad to take your orders for present or future needs. Coal will be no cheaper this year. All Illinois mines advance the price June 1st, and coal will be much higher by August. However. I have several cars of the best Franklin County, Illinois coal in transit. I can sell at the same price while it lasts. Orders taken over either phone, as I am at the office very little of the time, owing to farm activities.
